Saint of the Week:

June 29: St. Peter and St. Paul (1st Century) were two pillars of Christian faith. Peter, born in Bethsaida on the Sea of Galilee, a fisherman, was chosen by Jesus to be his disciple. After Simon confessed that Jesus was the Christ, Jesus changed Simon's name to Peter and told him that it was on this rock (the foundational stone, a support to others) upon which the Church would be built. He later denied Jesus to protect himself but then wept bitterly. After the Resurrection, Peter reaffirmed his love for Christ. From the middle of the 3rd century documents show that the bishops of Rome were recognized as the successors of Peter. Paul was born in Tarsus and raised and educated as a Pharisee. His experience of the risen Christ resulted in his conversion from a zealous persecutor of Christians to an apostle who would shape the theology and practice of the Church. Paul called himself the "Apostle of the Gentiles." Sts. Peter and Paul were martyred (between the years 64-67) because of their faith.

Saints de la semaine :

29 juin : Saints Pierre et Paul En fêtant le même jour les deux grands apôtres piliers de l'Église, la liturgie nous invite à méditer sur notre rôle dans le salut apporté par Jésus. Pierre un pêcheur simple et entier, fut un des premiers disciples du Maître et le témoin de sa vie et de sa mort. Paul, un pharisien savant et austère, fut frappé par le Seigneur sur le chemin de Damas, et se donna totalement au souci du Royaume.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

June 28, 2026

Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward.

In the first reading we hear about the woman from Shunem who served God by her hospitality to his servant, Elisha. She served Elisha because she knew he was a holy man of God. Jesus promises that whoever receives those he has sent receives not only him, but his heavenly Father as well. When we open our hearts to receive the Lord and his messengers, we receive the best reward: God's divine presence with us.

13e Dimanche du temps ordinaire

28 juin 2026

Accueillir, c'est laisser Dieu entrer

Accueillir, c'est croire à l'inattendu de Dieu, qui peut se révéler dans le visage de l'autre. Par nos gestes d'accueil, petits ou grands, le Royaume croît silencieusement au milieu du monde.

Our rest comes in walking side-by-side with Christ.

The God who defeated death – this mighty one whose dominion shall be from sea to sea – promises to carry our burdens with us, to never leave us alone in our struggles, to humble himself to walk beside us in our smallness and our need. Our rest comes in walking side-by-side with Christ.

14e Dimanche du temps ordinaire
